Religious education secures Unitarian Universalism's future by nurturing in children a lifelong commitment to our values and principles. South Church's religious education program is a cooperative effort that depends on your contributions. Each family is expected to designate at least one adult as a religious education leader or a participant in RE activities and events. Our program succeeds because of the collective wisdom, energy and talents of the entire congregation. Please circle the adult (A and/or B) who is committing to the corresponding activities(s).
