South Church is a covenanting member of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations and is an accredited Welcoming Congregation and Green Sanctuary. Unitarian Universalism is a liberal religion with Jewish-Christian roots. It has no creed. It affirms the worth of human beings, advocates freedom of belief and the search for advancing truth, and tries to provide a warm, open, supportive community for people who believe that ethical living is the supreme witness of religion. We welcome bisexual, gay, lesbian, and transgender people. There are seven principles which Unitarian Universalism congregations affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large
- The goal of the world community with peace, liberty and justice for all
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part

We are grateful for the religious pluralism which enriched and ennobles our faith; we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision.

SHARED LEADERSHIP Q&A SESSION - TODAY
What does Shared Leadership mean and where do we go from here? Please join Members of the Board and the Collaborative Governance Task Force on Sunday, March 6 at 11:30am for a Forum and Question and Answer time for where we are on Shared Leadership, the ByLaw changes that passed at our annual meeting, and what is next.

WIDEN THE CIRCLE: JOIN AN ASSOCIATE PROGRAM!
Do you want to help care for members of our congregation who are experiencing a change of life event? Do you want to assist the minister with morning worship? Would you like to welcome new members and help people feel loved and connected? Would you like to help our congregation engage in lifespan approaches to faith development? Would you like to act on our faith in the larger community by serving as a Social Justice Associate? Now is the time to talk to a member of the Shared Ministry Council to explore the best fit for your interests and talents. We need quite a few people to join each Associate Program! Visit the Shared Ministry team in the Narthex after Worship, or email sharedministry@southchurch-uu.org. Learn more at http://www.southchurch-uu.org/what-we-offer/shared-ministry/

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
The Religious Education Program at South Church is a community supported program grounded in the Unitarian Universalist principles, which promote a sense of social justice and responsibility as well as tolerance, identity and spiritual growth. Our purpose is to involve children in a religious community in which they develop a spiritual sense of themselves, their connection to others and to the world as a whole.

RE Program 2021-2022
The Nursery (unstaffed) is open for you and your children to have a quiet, private place during Worship. Please remain with your children at all times.

As we return to in-person Worship, children will have the option to join an all-ages RE time of community and connection after the Time For All Ages part of Worship.

Alternatively, children are always welcome to remain in Worship.
For more information on our Religious Education program, email our Religious Education Coordinator, Jen Del Deo, at jendeldeo@southchurch-uu.org.

PASTORAL ASSOCIATES

Remember this old song by Bill Withers? “Lean on me, when you’re not strong, and I’ll be your friend. I’ll help you carry on...”

We are the Pastoral Associates. Through the Wider Network of Care, we offer rides, meals, companionship, conversation, and support, because sometimes we all need somebody to lean on. If you want to be part of the WNC offering comfort to members, fill out the yellow card in your pew and give it your usher! You can share your joys and concerns on Sundays by filling out a blue Pastoral Request card in your pew, or via email at pastoralcare@southchurch-uu.org or through Rev. Susan at revsusan@southchurch-uu.org. If you have a prayer that you would like shared during Worship, please reach out to Rev. Susan by Friday.

BLACK HERITAGE TRAIL TEA TALKS

The Black Heritage Trail of NH is sponsoring Tea Talks again this year; community dialogues on issues of race and justice, for 6 consecutive Sundays at 2pm beginning February 6. You can attend in person or by Zoom, but you must register first. Today’s topic will be “Family Structures and Racial Ambiguities” and centers on transracial adoptees and mixed race Americans. The final talk on March 13 is titled “Shades of Blackness” and will be Black Americans sharing their stories.

For more information, and to register for the Tea Talks, visit www.blackheritagetrailnh.org

CANDLES OF JOY AND CONCERN
We find that taking time to acknowledge our sorrows and joys bring us release, support, and strength and joy. We invite you to take a moment and reflect on a joy or concern you are holding. If it is something you want us to know about, please take a moment and write your concern on the Pastoral Care blue card in the pew. When you come to the table to light your candle place your card in the basket and we will be in touch with you. If you would like your prayer concern named aloud during the service, please be in touch with the office or Rev. Susan by Friday and/ or write your concern down and hand it to us before service.

POSTLUDE
Arr. by Nancy Raabe

During March, Women’s History month, our Sunday collection will be shared with Womenaid of Greater Portsmouth. Womenaid provides short term financial assistance to neighbors in need when they have nowhere else to turn. To learn more, visit www.womenaidportsmouth.org

Special thanks to Susan Adams and the South Church Choir for the gift of music, and to John Shea for leading Worship.

We are deeply grateful to the many staff and volunteers whose often unseen efforts make our Sunday services possible. Many thanks to Jennifer Leyden, Tim Dullea, Kevin Leahy, our custodian, greeters, ushers and everyone else who has lent a hand this week!

Assisted listening devices are available in the rear of the sanctuary or by asking your Usher.
