2019 Ferry Beach Winter Retreat

Come share a weekend of fun and rejuvenation with others from South Church! This is our 2nd year at Ferry Beach in Saco, Maine. Ferry Beach Park Association is a non-profit UU retreat center on the Southern Maine coast. The retreat is scheduled for early February, beginning Friday afternoon and ending at 2pm on Sunday. This is a collaborative retreat and we encourage all participants to share their interests and talents with the larger group as well as rest/relax/reflect.

The inspiration for this new retreat came from the The Fall Community Retreat (an annual tradition at South Church each October). This smaller winter gathering offers the opportunity to get to know others from South Church in a deeper & more intimate way (max group size 24). Youth are welcome. Feel free to check with registrar on who is registering or recruit other families if you are looking for companions for your kids!
