Part IV: Financial Contribution

Do you contribute financially to South Church?

The religious education’s greatest need is time, but as an integral part of the church we also draw on its material and financial resources. If you are not a contributing member or friend, please consider becoming one.

May we have a member of the stewardship committee contact you about making a contribution?

Yes ___ No ___

What is the most convenient way for us to reach you? _____

Thank you!

Part IV: Family Commitment

Our program succeeds because of the collective wisdom, energy and talents of the entire congregation. Each family is expected to designate at least one adult as a religious education leader or a participant in RE activities and events. Religious education secures Unitarian Universalism's future by nurturing in children a lifelong commitment to our values and principles.
